

YOUR KIDS ARE ALREADY HEARING ABOUT SEX...

...DON'T THEY DESERVE TO HEAR ABOUT IT FROM YOU?

A majority of young people cite parents as having the most influence on their decision to postpone sex. Yet, 37% of all young people say they have not had an open and honest conversation with their parents about the subject.

October is Let's Talk Month when parents are encouraged to make stronger connections with their children and to talk openly and honestly about their sexual health and relationships.
