

Diversity Not Adversity: An Honest Dialogue about Differences and Working with Diverse Populations

March 13th 2008
8:30am - 12:30 pm
Center for Families
3333 North 4th St. Minneapolis, MN

This open dialogue, led by Clarence Jones of Southside Community Health Services, will engage participants in candid conversations on how we can effectively embrace diversity without losing our souls (sense of self, history, traditions, values, etc.)

This session will explore how providers can successfully and sensitively address the health, economic and social needs of adolescents and families of different cultures.

Registration for MOAPP Members $30.00
Non-MOAPPP Members $65
